
The infinite inverse window problem reduces to one finite character calculation.