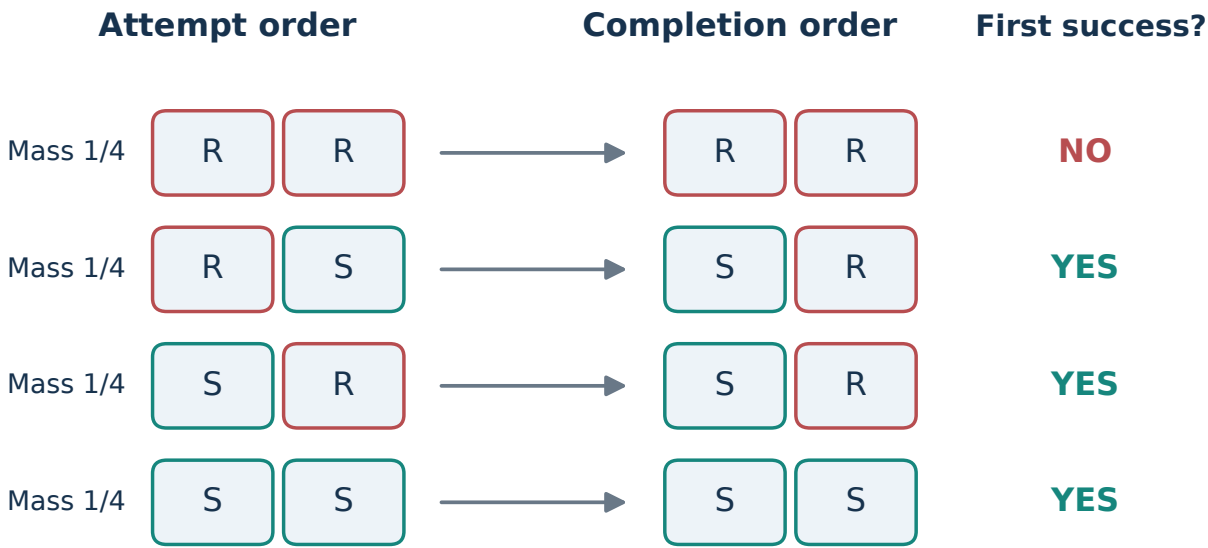
Completion order changes the first report's success rate



Attempts are independent fair bits. Successes finish before rejections.
Every operation is logged and every intent is resolved. First-report success = 3/4.