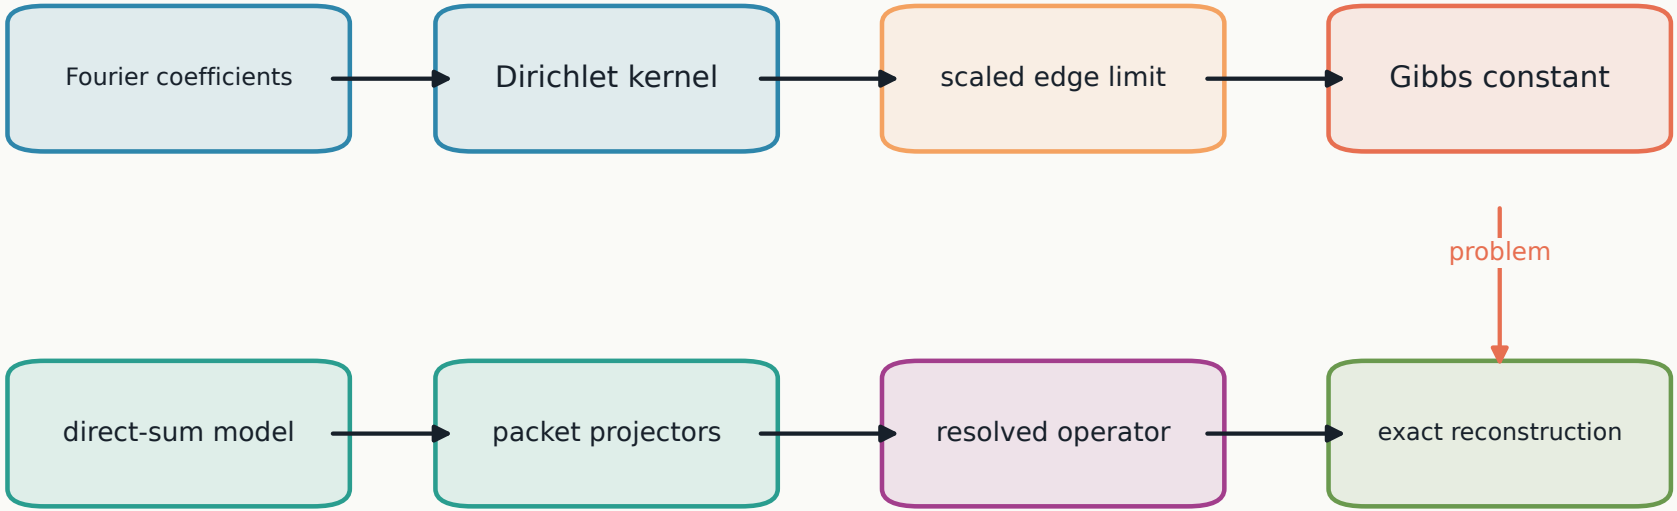
Two proof chains meet at the final comparison



The Gibbs theorem explains why raw truncation fails. The packet theorem explains why the packet reconstruction succeeds.