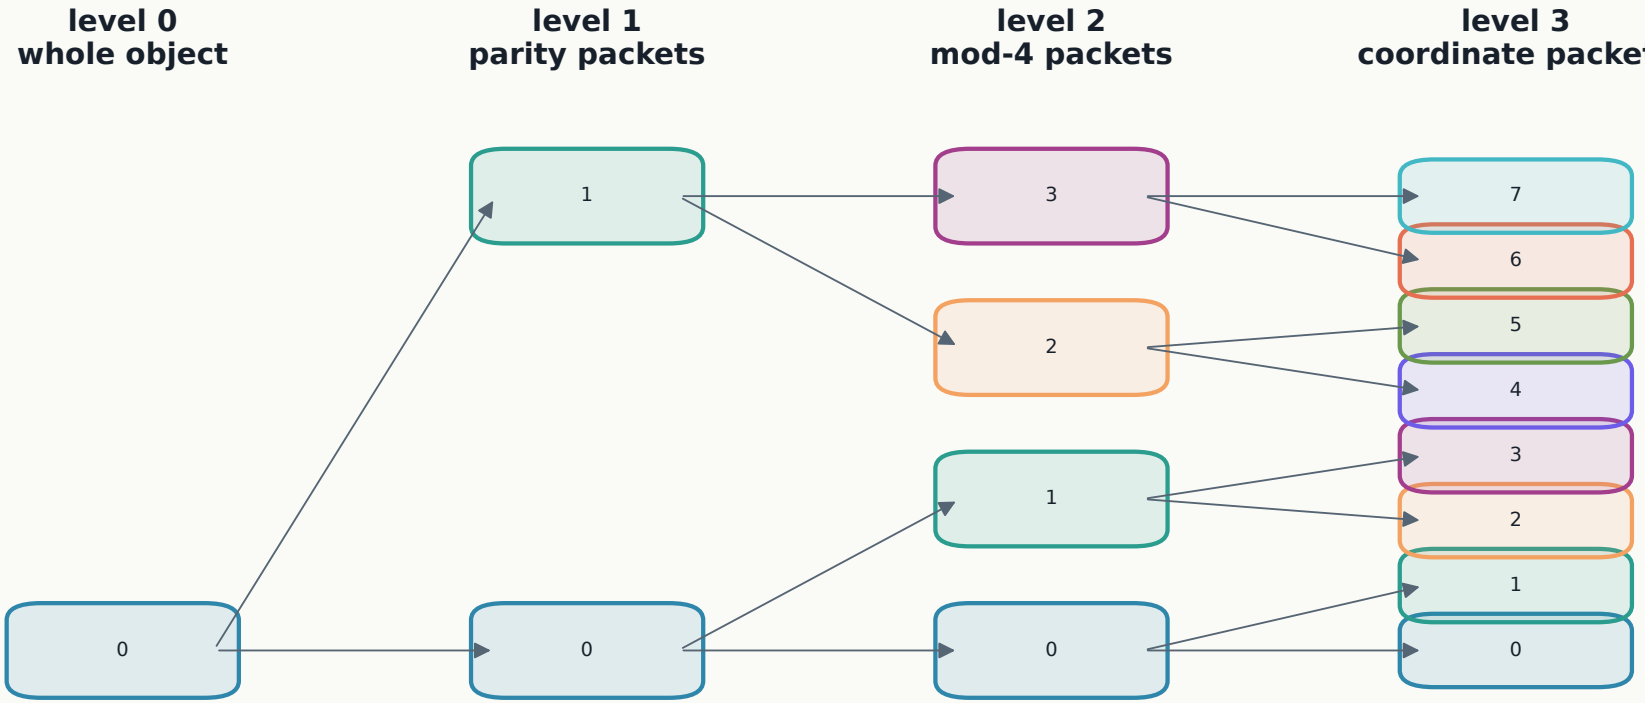
Finite refinement tower and the declared completion direction



At every level the packets sum to the identity. An infinite theory must additionally declare the topology in which this tower converges.