
If $h \in \mathcal{S} \cap \mathcal{J}$ is nonzero, the smooth-edge split is not identifiable.

A recovery theorem must make the two packets distinguishable after measurement.