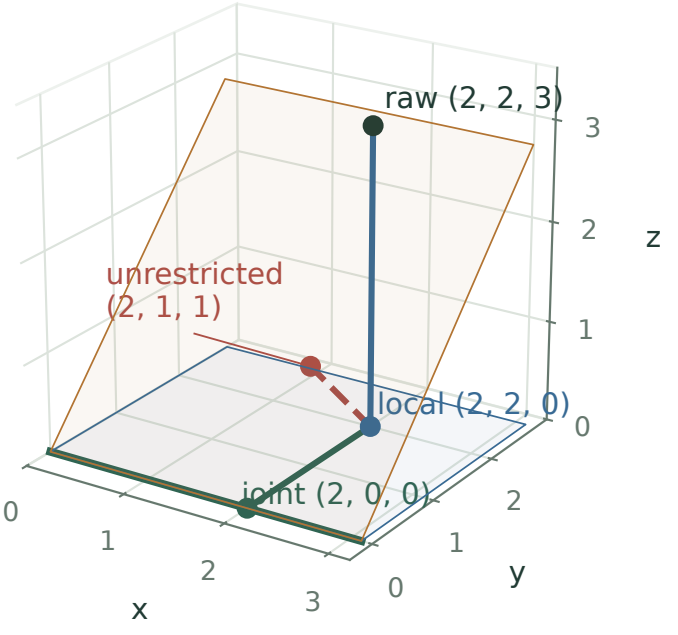
Does the second repair preserve the first equation?

Local exactness: z = 0. Matching: y = z. Joint exactness: the x-axis.



Inside $z = 0$: squared moves $9 + 4 = 13$. Unrestricted: matching holds, but $z = 1$.