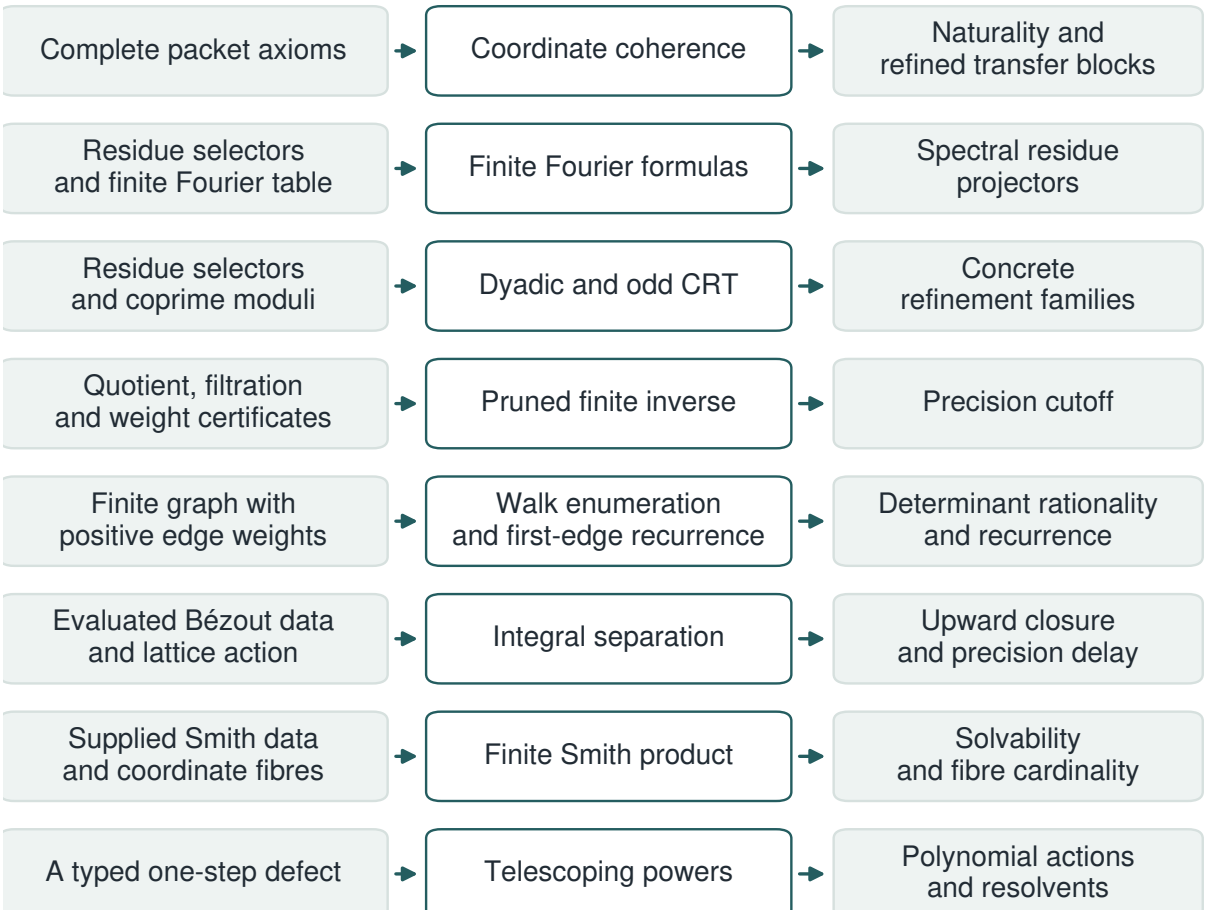
Distinct proof branches

Each row identifies its own inputs and the conclusions they support.



The walk series is independent of operator inversion. General Smith and Bézout constructions remain upstream inputs to their certificate branches.