
Finite checks help audit the construction. They do not supply the third condition.