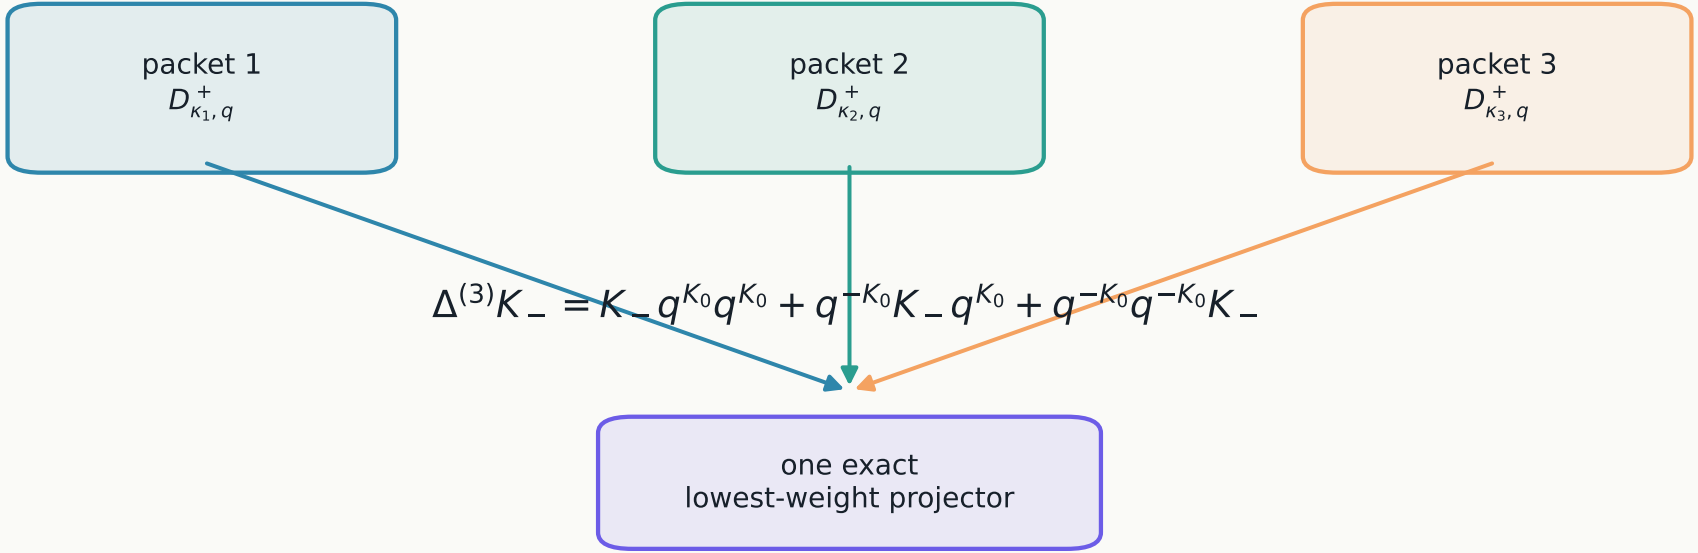
The symmetric coproduct routes one lowering event through every factor



The q-powers retain the ordering data needed by the deformed tensor product.