The Jacobi truncations give Pade-type resolvent models without losing positivity