Pole location and weight positivity are inherited from the packet measure