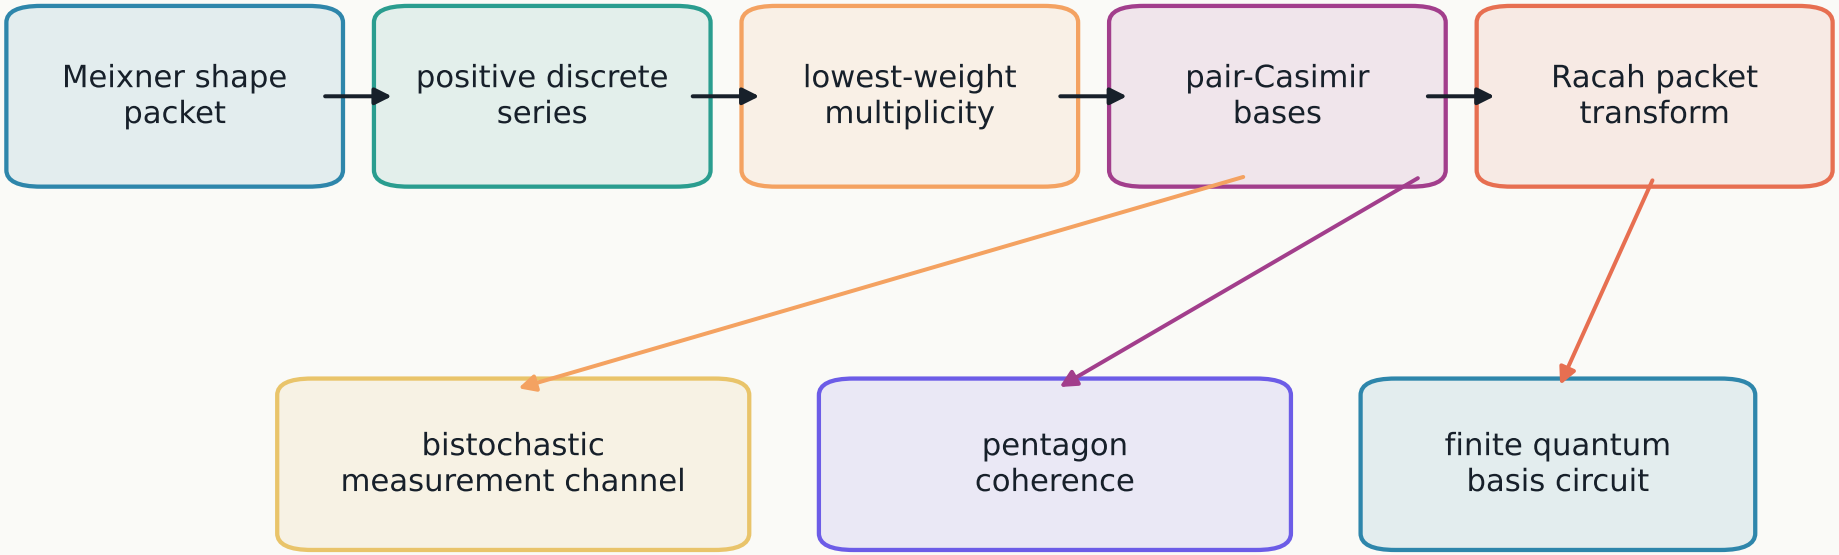
From shape refinement to Racah recoupling



Different refinement trees describe the same total packet space and are connected by exact orthogonal transforms.