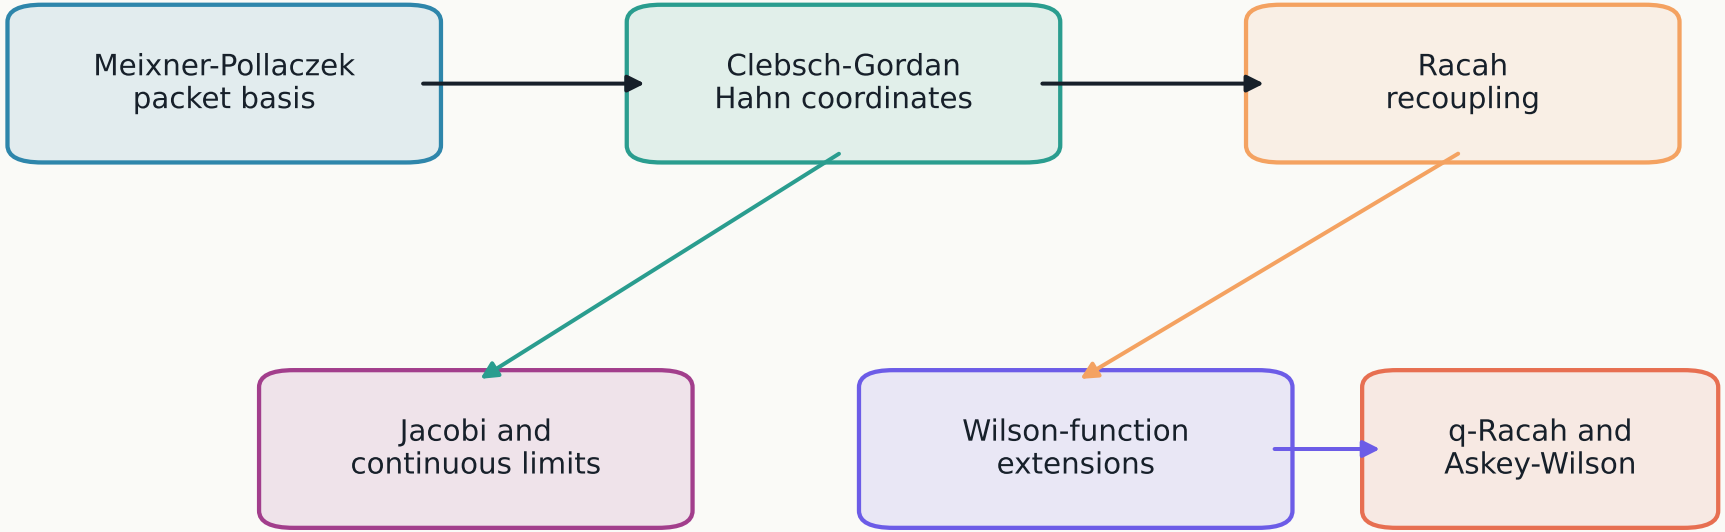
Where the generated recoupling functions sit in the classical hierarchy



The classical names are retained. The packet calculus supplies the common refinement and associator interpretation.