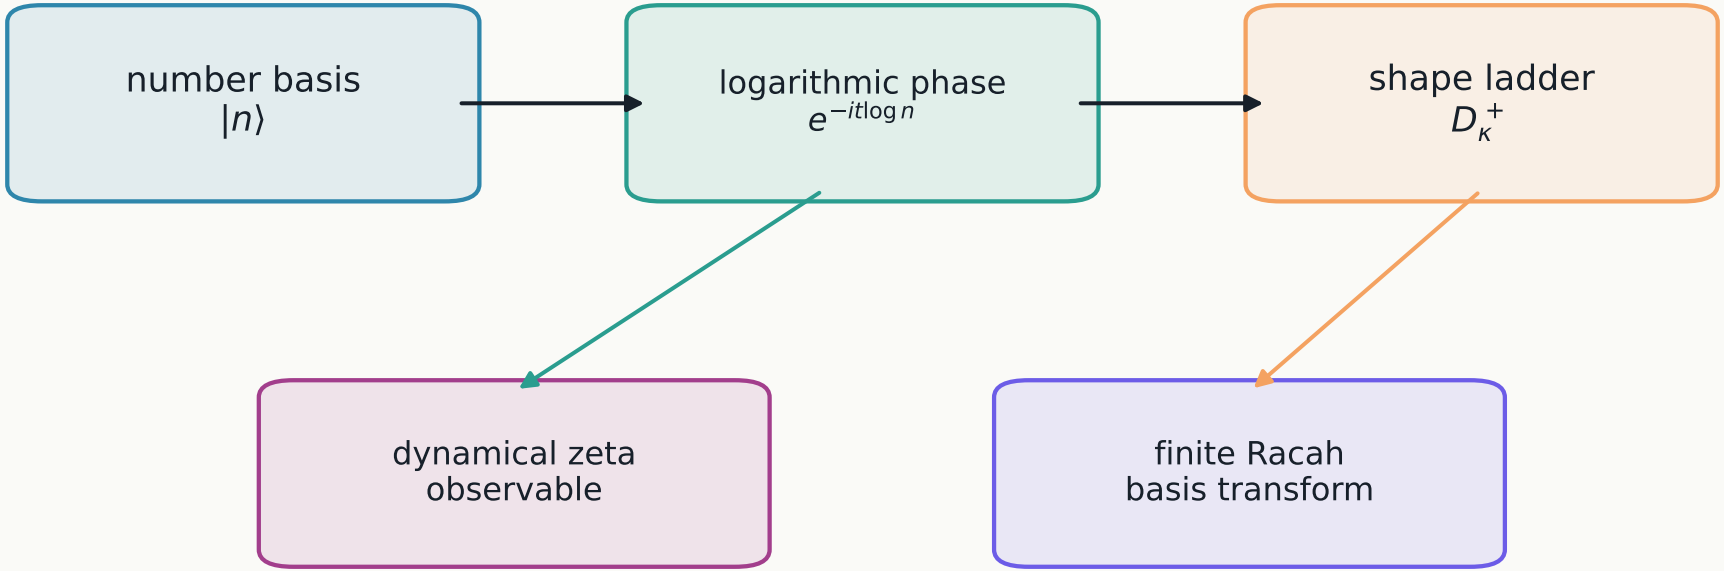
Two quantum coordinates in the extended calculus



The logarithmic Hamiltonian and the shape recoupling transform are distinct modules and can be composed without identifying their spectra.