
One sufficiently large residual realization already produces a characteristic zero Artin representation.