Scaling profiles with constants set to one; not empirical divisor counts or theta samples.