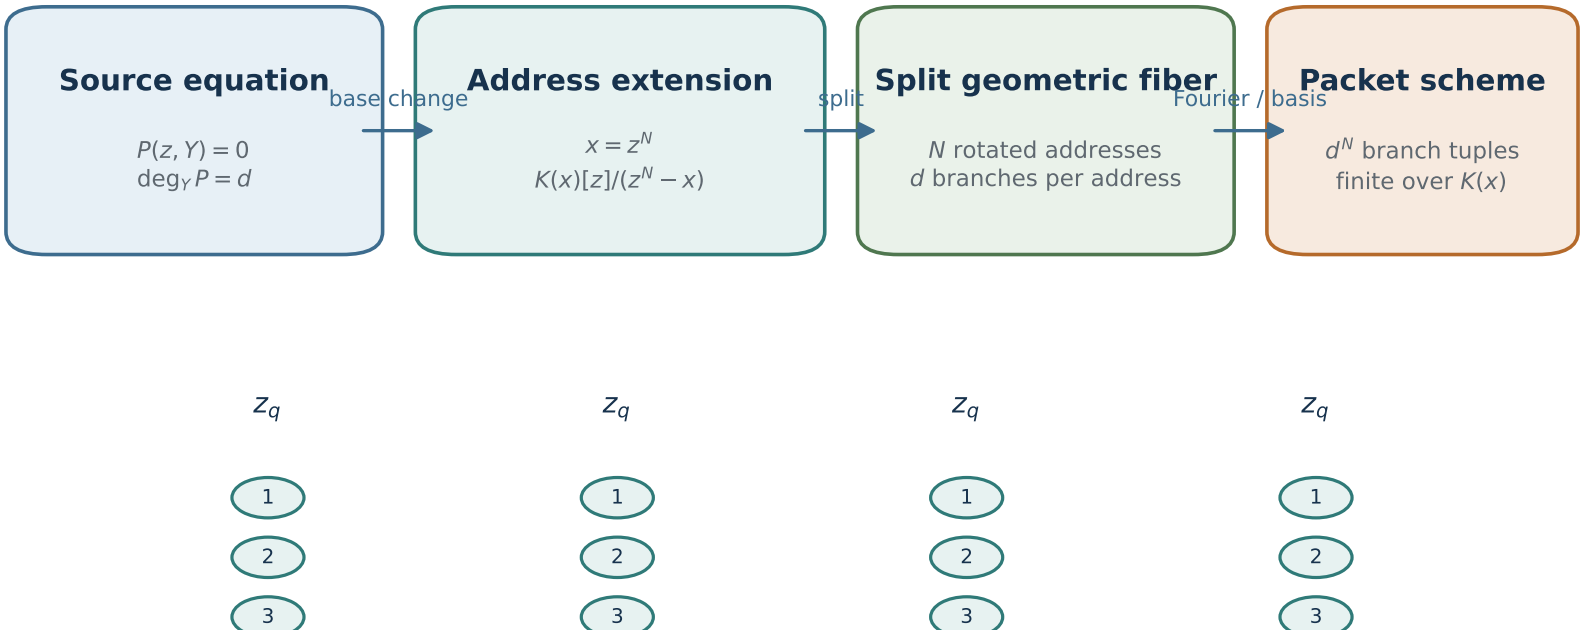
Algebraic packet compiler as finite Weil restriction



After splitting, the packet system is the Cartesian product of N degree-d branch fibers; the universal geometric degree is d^N.