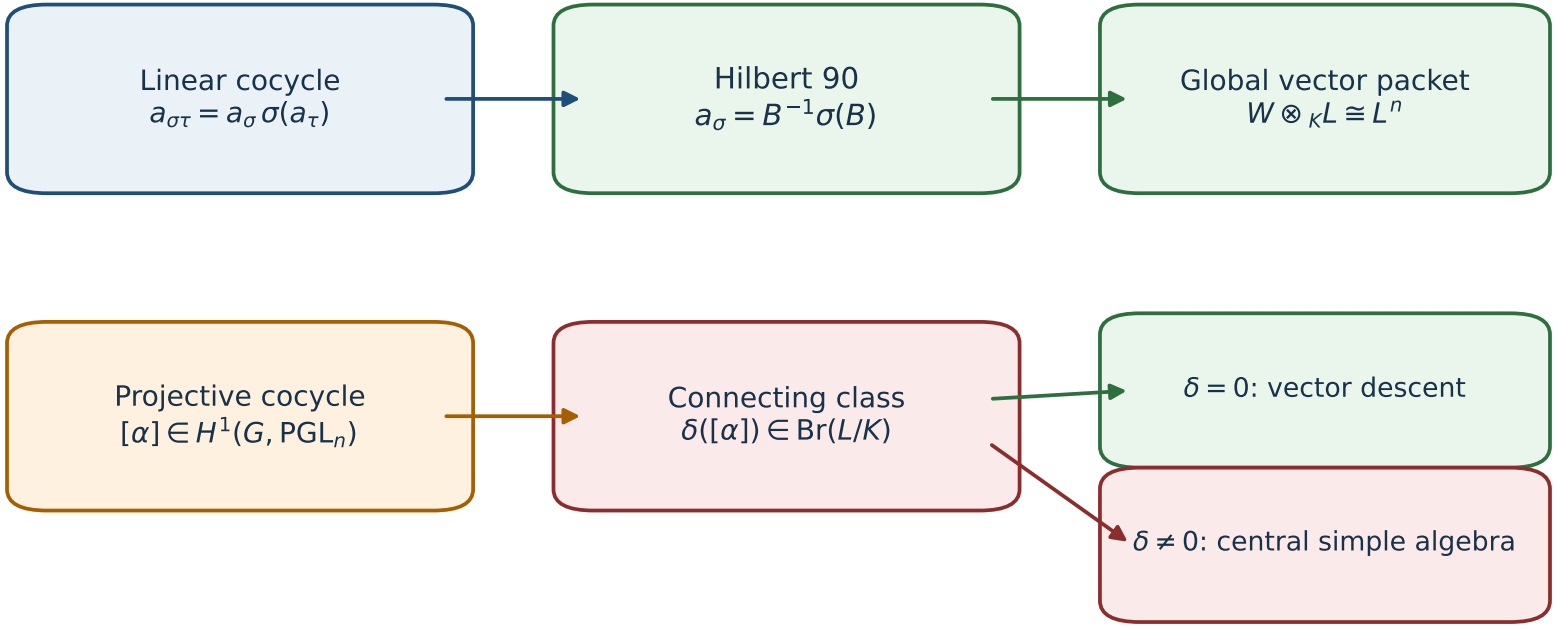
Linear descent is effective; projective descent has a Brauer obstruction



C/R example: A = [[0, 1], [-1, 0]] has A conjugate(A) = -I; the scalar defect -1 is the quaternionic class.