A finite divisor obstruction separates collapse from genuinely nonrational mask series