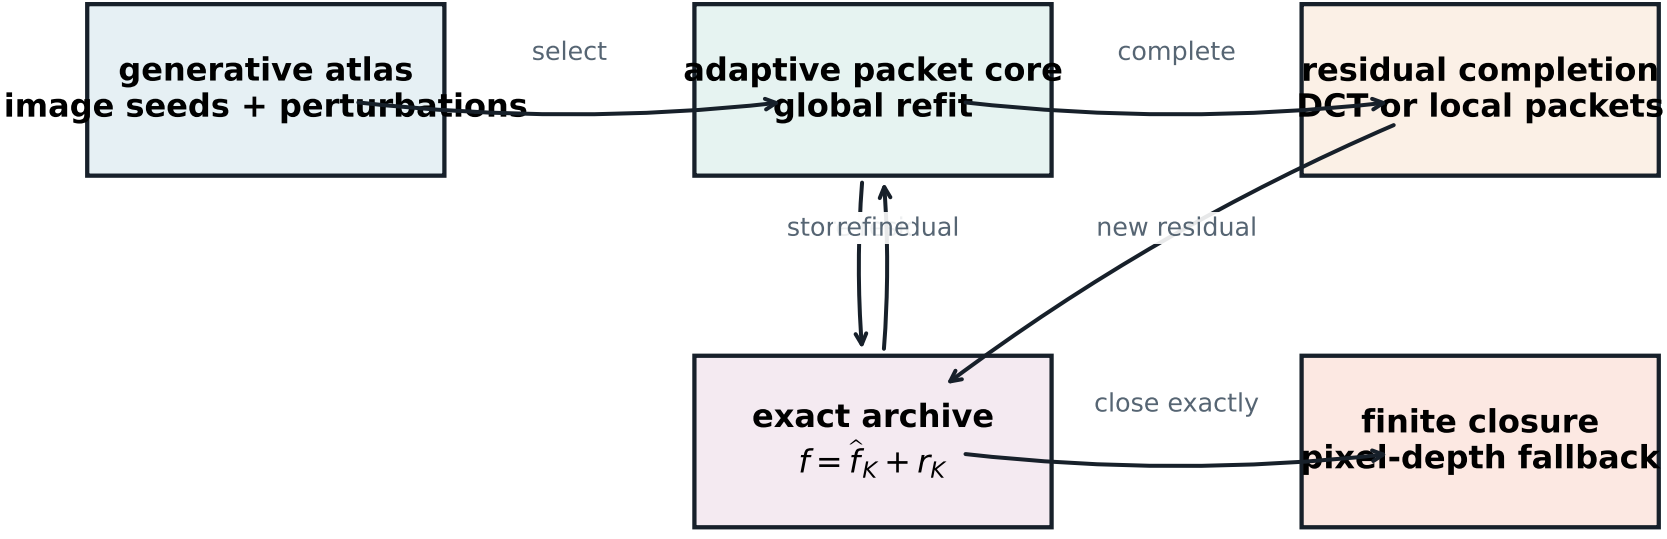
Global unknown-image reconstruction has three distinct guarantees



Sparse approximation, exact residual accounting, and exact finite closure are different claims and remain separately visible.